Mr. Otto H. Kahn,
52 William Street,
New York.

Dear Mr. Kahn:-

Your payment of dues for this year entitles you to enrollment as a Fellow for life through the provision in our By-Laws:

"Any Fellow of the Society who has, for a period of twenty consecutive years, regularly paid all dues, or who shall pay the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars, may, by resolution of Council, be relieved from further dues."

At the last meeting of the Council held January 6th, this condition was noted, and you are therefore exempt from the payment of further dues as a Fellow of this Society.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Kahn:

I am returning your cheque for $15, because I find that through an error a bill for your membership dues in this Society for the current year should not have been sent you. With the payment for 1919, you qualified as a Life Member, having paid dues for twenty years. This fact was overlooked at the time the bills were prepared. Will you please pardon the mistake?

Very respectfully yours,

(Enclosure)

Secretary.
